Re: FEDERAL FIREARMS PROHIBITIONS

Effective September 30, 1996, Congress enacted the Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1997 entitled the "Gun Ban for Individuals convicted of a Misdemeanor Crime of Domestic Violence", which amended the Gun Control Act of 1968. The law prohibits any person who has been convicted of a "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" from shipping, transporting, possessing, or receiving firearms or ammunition. In addition, the law prohibits any person who is currently the subject of domestic violence restraining order from shipping, transporting, possessing, or receiving firearms or ammunition, except firearms or ammunition which are imported for, sold or shipped to, or issued for the use of any federal, state or local agency. This law applies to all persons, including peace officers.

'The Women in the Outdoors' offers a variety of classes to the public, which involve the use or possession of firearms or ammunition. As such, the Women in the Outdoors program must ensure that participants of these classes are not prohibited by this federal law from possessing, receiving, or using firearms or ammunition. Any one, who has been convicted of a federal or state "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence," may not participate in any class that involves the use or possession of firearms or ammunition.

Therefore, if you are interested in registering for or have registered for any class that involves the use or possession of firearms or ammunition, you must complete the Self-Certification below. If you refuse to complete the Self-Certification, you may not participate in the class
